

FORDINGBRIDGE FIRE STATION 10 MILE RACE – ‘ADAMS YOMP’

SUNDAY 6th September 2015.

A circular ten mile run through lovely Hampshire countryside both on and off road starting & finishing at Fordingbridge Fire Station. This race is being held in memory of Royal Marine Adam Brown of 40 Commando who was born in Yateley, Hampshire, England UK on 25th February 1985. On the 1st August 2010 he was tragically killed in action whilst serving in Afghanistan, he was just 25 years old. One of Adam's dreams was to own a beach hut at Mudeford near Christchurch where he spent many a childhood holiday. As Adam said many times "It is a very special place". We have now successfully completed a fundraising campaign to purchase a beach hut so that we can fulfill his dream and the monies raised from this event will go towards maintaining the hut. "Adam's Hoofing Hut" will be an extraordinary memorial to an extraordinary young man and will be used by Marines families and friends in need of a quiet place to relax and reflect
